Burnt as a Witch.

The St. Petersburg Government Messenger says: Early last mouth a woman Agrafea lignagiva was burned as a witch by the peasants in the village of Wratshevo, in the Government of Novgorod. It seems that the wretched woman, who was a widow of a soldier had the reputation of being a screenes and witch, and streve to promote this delusion by twere means in her power. The peasants of the whole neighboring district had such a dread of her power of mischief that they endeavered even to anticipate her wishes, and, although an absolute pauper, and lived very comfortably on the contributiors apparent and l 8 noles 13 links; thence still with said turnpike an undivided one half interest, subject to the N. 36°, W. 6 poles to the beginning, containing said life estate.
